

MILITIA IS READY TO MOVE AT ONCE

GOV. HASTINGS IS APPREHENSIVE OF TROUBLE.

Miners Are Behaving Well—Situation Shows Little Change—Strikers in Indiana Are Determined to Have Work Stopped—One Thousand Men Leave the Mines in Iowa.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 4.—Col. A. J. Logan, division quartermaster of the militia, was at Turtle Creek Tuesday looking over the ground to see if there was any likelihood of the necessity of calling out the state troops. When he returned to Pittsburg he met Brig.-Gen. John A. Wiley, who came from Franklin. While Gen. Wiley did not make known the cause of his visit here, it is presumed it had something to do with the mining situation.

At the armory of the 18th regiment there was an unusually large attendance of members in citizens' clothes, besides those who were there for regular company drills. The armory of battery B was lighted up and there was quite a good attendance of men there also. From this it is evident that the officers of the national guard will be ready in case any trouble should occur and that certain men have been informally detailed to keep in touch with their officers in anticipation of a call. Some of the men were at the armories all night. Should the guard be wanted the local regiments could take the field within an hour.

A large parade and meeting of strikers was held last night at Turtle Creek. Three carloads of Homestead steelworkers participated. Dolan expects to get all of De Armit's men out within two days, and will then start a march on the West Moreland mines. A serious phase developed when it was seen that a number of strikers were intoxicated. Dolan cautioned the men and said the liquor had been introduced into camp by enemies.

The situation in the mines varies but little. The Turtle Creek mine was working, but the strikers claim there were only nine diggers inside. At Plum Creek there were several hundred men at work and considerable coal was run out. At Sandy Creek the suspension is almost total. The strikers admit that four men are at work, their watchers having seen them enter the mine.

Miners Quit in Iowa.
Ottumwa, Iowa, Aug. 4.—The Iowa miners broke again Tuesday, and 1,000 men are out at Forbush, Rathbun and several Centerville mines. The meeting at Centerville Friday passed a resolution demanding 80 cents for summer and $1 for winter. The operators granted the summer rate, but refused to bind themselves to any winter price. The men went to work, however, Saturday morning. Monday night a secret mass-meeting was held at Centerville and the men decided to stand by the action of the meeting Friday. Miners freely predict that a general strike will be declared by the state meeting to be held here Aug. 9.

Determined to Stop Work.
Canton, Ill., Aug. 4.—Visiting strikers are seen everywhere. Two hundred are now camped in the nearby woods. Forty negroes and two white men went to work Tuesday morning. One hundred Hungarians will arrive from Minonk Wednesday to assist the Peoria county strikers in keeping the men from working. The outlook promises trouble, as the visiting strikers are determined that the White-breast Fuel company shall not operate its mines until the strike is settled, but the visitors can do nothing with the negroes, who are determined to work.

Fear Trouble at Galva, Ill.
Kewanee, Ill., Aug. 4.—Gilchrist miners 100 strong arrived in Galva, eight miles west of here, Tuesday morning for the purpose of driving out the men who are now at work there. They expected to meet 400 Spring Valley strikers who are now on the way to Galva, but they were disappointed. They decided to do nothing further until the arrival of the small army of men from Spring Valley. They state they will not use violent means to stop the work of the Galva miners, but, nevertheless, no little apprehension is felt.

To Force Indiana Men Out.
Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 4.—Marching miners to the number of 150, with several wagonloads of provisions, left Washington Monday night on a crusade to the mines in southern Indiana, where 500 or 600 men have continued at work. At Little's and Cannelburg they came out readily, and the march has been continued to Ayrshire, where 200 men are digging coal. Woolley's men at Petersburg have quit. The crusaders will go on to Princeton and then to the Evansville district.

Gaining Ground in West Virginia.
Wheeling, W. Va., Aug. 4.—Matters are lively in mining circles in the interior and reports from all the centers of interest show that the men are gaining ground and are greatly encouraged.

Leaders Accused of Riot.
Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 4.—Edward McKay, first vice-president of the United Mine-Workers, and Paul Trimmer, who has charge of Camp Determination, were arrested by Constable Charles E. Speer on a warrant charging them with riot. Both men were taken before Ald. W. H. Semmers, where they gave bail for a hearing to-day.

GOES INTO A WASHOUT.

Two Killed and Many Hurt in a Wreck on the Kansas Pacific.

Denver, Col., Aug. 4.—The fast flyer on the Kansas Pacific railroad was wrecked about daylight Tuesday morning about forty miles east of Denver. Two trainmen were killed outright. Many passengers were injured, but all will recover. The dead are: JOHN A. WARD, engineer, Denver, Col.

W. B. HARRINGTON, baggagemaster, of Kansas City, Mo.

The injured are: Oscar Ingham, fireman, bruised about the head.

W. H. Rankin, Denver, Col., badly cut about the head; arm broken.

J. E. Reid, back injured.

Mrs. Fred Nash, Laramie, Wyo., back sprained.

Mrs. C. E. Gravett, Blue Springs, Neb., right ankle broken.

Mrs. C. L. Hubbard, Abilene, Kan., back hurt.

W. H. B. Thornton, Chicago, Ill., arm sprained and bruised.

L. Eckert, Topeka, Kan., head cut.

Miss Minnie Edelmomn, bruised.

C. E. Goddard, Leavenworth, Kan., back hurt.

Mrs. John Trairs, Augusta, Ga., arms and legs cut.

The wreck was caused by a washout. The heavy rains of the night flooded the streams and carried out a portion of a small bridge which spans Comanche creek between Byers and Strasburg. The train was on time and was running along at the usual speed. Without warning the engine plunged into the abyss, followed by the mail and baggage car, and other cars were piled about in confusion.

Would Retaliate on Canada.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 4.—At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with the merchants and shippers of this city, resolutions were adopted memorializing the secretary of the treasury to abolish the privilege heretofore extended to Canadians of bonding goods in shipment through American territory and also to rescind the action establishing supports of entry at Dyea, Skaguay and Circle City. This action is taken in retaliation for what is deemed the harsh and unjustifiable measure proposed by the Canadian government to levy an import duty on personal outfits of miners and prospectors going from the United States into the New Klondyke district.

Rich Spaniards Leave Cuba.

Key West, Fla., Aug. 4.—Many rich Spaniards are leaving Cuba since the issuing of the last edict of Gen. Gomez declaring the Cubans will choose between independence or death. They had hoped autonomy would be established, but they have been disappointed. Over 2,500 Spanish soldiers are sick at Sancti Spiritu, and the hospital is so small that they cannot be received. At Perico Lopez, in Santa Clara province, a Cuban soldier was attacked and many sick soldiers were killed. The Spanish government last January owed the troops $40,000,000.

Final Call for Peru.

Washington, Aug. 4.—An ultimatum has been presented to the Peruvian government by the state department demanding the immediate payment of the MacCord claim for $50,000. While no threat of coercion is made in case of the refusal of Peru to pay the claim, the note of the secretary of state makes the positive statement that any further delay on the part of Peru will be considered as injurious to the cordial relations existing between the two governments.

Illinois Coal Men to Organize.

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 4.—Thirty-seven miners were represented at the meeting of coal operators in this city for the purpose of forming a state association. It was decided to take no final action until the meeting of miners is held at Springfield. A resolution to organize into a state association was adopted, and a committee on constitution and by-laws was appointed. The scale of wages paid the miners of the district was laid on the table for the time being.

Glass-Workers in a Fight.

Muncie, Ind., Aug. 4.—The Flint and Green Glass Workers' union are likely to be disrupted by their efforts for precedence in the Ball Bros.' glass factory. Glass-blowing machines are to be introduced in September and many men will be thrown out. The flint-glass men claim the right to the remaining places and say they will fight for them, and the green-glass men are equally determined to hold the jobs.

Debs' Lawyer to Defend Dolan.

Pittsburg, Aug. 4.—Attorney Iboch of Hammond, Ind., who defended Debs in the contempt proceedings, is in Pittsburg for the purpose, it is thought, of conducting President Dolan's case, which comes up for a hearing tomorrow.

MAY RAISE A FLAG OVER THE ISLAND

EXCITING NEWS IS RECEIVED FROM HAWAII.

All Complications to End—The Belgic Brings Word That Minister Sewall Has Made All Plans to Declare a Protectorate Over the Islands—Denied at Washington.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 4.—The following from the correspondent of the Associated Press at Honolulu was received on the steamer Belgic Tuesday: "The arrival of the steamship Moana from San Francisco, due here the 29th, means much for Hawaii. In official circles it is generally understood that United States Minister Sewall will carry out the instructions received in the last mail, said to be to this effect: If the Moana brings word that congress failed to pass the annexation treaty, Minister Sewall is to declare a protectorate and raise the American flag."

"The American minister has had frequent consultations with President Dole within the last week, and it is believed they have agreed on a program. The general impression here is that congress has decided to let the matter of annexation wait over until the regular session. The intervening months would be a long time for this country alone, in view of the attitude of Japan, and Secretary Sherman believed a protectorate of the United States is the only way to prevent hostile action on the part of the Japanese."

"As soon as the Moana arrives it is understood the United States minister will notify this government of his intention to raise the American flag. Diplomatic etiquette will allow a day or two for an answer, and it is expected everything will be in readiness to declare a protectorate Monday, Aug. 2. This information comes from a trustworthy source, and few persons in Honolulu are aware of the near approach of the most important event in the history of the country."

DENIED AT WASHINGTON.

No Change in the Instructions Given to Admiral Beardslee.

Washington, Aug. 4.—It is declared positively at the state department that there has been no change in the instructions given either to Minister Sewall or to Admiral Beardslee touching their attitude toward the Hawaiian question. The admiral's instructions were to protect American interests at all points and to establish a protectorate only in the event of serious disturbance or the commission of some overt act. It is not understood that the execution of this order was at all dependent upon the action or non-action of congress upon the annexation.

It was said that as President McKinley had referred the whole matter to congress along with the annexation treaty, it would not be courteous to that body for the executive to act of its own volition until congress had expressed its will. It was further said there was no truth in the oft-repeated story that the battle-ship Oregon was under orders to go to Honolulu.

SCOPE OF ARBITRATION.

Authoritative Statement by the Japanese Ambassador to France.

London, Aug. 4.—According to the Paris correspondent of the Daily Mail the Japanese ambassador to France, Sone Arasuke, has explained, in the course of an interview, the subject matter of the forthcoming arbitration between Japan and Hawaii. The ambassador said: "The arbitration will deal only with the question of indemnity for breach of contract. There is no suggestion of arbitration with the United States, because Japan does not recognize that the United States has any right in Hawaii."

The ambassador said also that the Dingley tariff would ruin Japan's great and growing trade with the United States in carpets and mats, and he protested against the placing of prohibitive duties upon goods for which there is no corresponding industry in the United States.

Sherman Will Not Talk.

Amagansett, L. I., Aug. 4.—Secretary of State Sherman would not discuss the report from Hawaii that United States Minister Sewall had been instructed to declare a protectorate over the islands. Referring to Whitelaw Reid's visit Mr. Sherman stated that it was only in regard to the submitting of Mr. Reid's report as special ambassador to Great Britain.

Akron, O., Boy Commits Suicide.

Akron, O., Aug. 4.—George Young, the 13-year-old son of a respected family of this city, committed suicide on Tuesday by hanging himself with a rubber hose. The determination of the lad to end his life was shown by the position the body was found. The hose was a small one used for filling bottles and had stretched, but the boy pulled up his feet and slowly strangled to death.

American Bark Lost.

London, Aug. 4.—Word has been received from Valparaiso that the American bark Nonantum, Captain Newhall, from Newcastle, N. S. W., April 9, for Panama, has been lost on Easter Island, a small island lying in about 27 south latitude and 110 west longitude, and that all on board were saved.

EUROPE IS DEFIED BY TURKEY'S RULER

FLEET OF TURKISH WARSHIPS SENT TO CRETE

Collision is Possible—Battleships of the Powers Will Oppose the Landing of Turkish Soldiers by Force if Necessary—Crisis Seems Close at Hand.

Constantinople, Aug. 4.—A dispatch from the Dardanelles announces that the second naval division of the Turkish fleet, consisting of seven warships, commanded by Huri Pasha, has sailed for the island of Crete.

Fears are expressed here that the departure of the Turkish naval division may lead to a collision with the international fleet in Cretan waters, in view of the announcement of the foreign admirals that they have decided to oppose by force the landing of the Turkish re-enforcements in the island of Crete.

It has been reported for some time that the Turkish government was contemplating landing additional Turkish troops in Crete and Thursday last the admirals in command of the foreign fleet in Cretan waters held a conference and decided to oppose by force the landing of any Turkish re-enforcements in Crete. They notified Ismail Bey, the Turkish civil governor, of the decision arrived at, but the Turkish governor replied that he could not accept such a decision, apparently taking the ground that the porte should persist in its intention to re-enforce the Turkish garrison in Crete.

Reign of Terror in Portugal.

London, Aug. 5.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Madrid describes a very grave state of affairs in Portugal. According to this correspondent the Portuguese government is setting the most stringent repressive measures. The police without legal warrants enter private dwellings at all hours of the day and night, ransack them, seize property and march the owners off to prison the most trifling or utterly unfounded charges. A veritable reign of terror is established, and it is the popular belief that the government contemplates passing its obnoxious financial legislation by means of a coup d'etat.

Field Marshal Wolseley Ill.

London, Aug. 4.—Viscount Garnet Joseph Wolseley, field marshal and commander in chief of the British army, is seriously ill. He is 64 years of age and the worst is feared. Wolseley was born at Golden Bridge House, near Dublin, June 4 1833, and was educated at a private school and under tutors. He is Irish through and through, and although out of politics at Dublin, where he has been for five years as commander-in-chief of the Irish forces, he is a firm believer in home rule for Ireland on a modified plan.

Volcano Mayon Kills 500.

Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 4.—The Philippine Islands are again the center of interest in the orient. The volcano Mayon was in eruption June 26. That day fifty-six persons lost their lives and many more were injured. Latest advices received at Hong Kong from Manila place loss to July 1 at fully 500. It was believed in Manila that the loss would be much greater before the volcano subsided. The flourishing cities of Malipot, Bacay and Libog were partly or wholly destroyed and lava was still pouring into them.

King George Will Not Abdicate.

Athens, Aug. 4.—M. Ralli, the premier, denies that King George has threatened to abdicate. This is interpreted to mean that Germany has probably consented to some modified control of Greek finances acceptable to both Greece and to Europe.

A sharp engagement took place between 2,000 Turkish troops and the armed populace of the villages lying between Metsovo, Trikala and Kalarytes. The Turks retreated after losing seventy killed.

Drowned at Holland, Mich.

Holland, Mich., Aug. 4.—Miss Clara Hall, aged 18, a daughter of Sherwood Hall, a prominent carriage manufacturer of Grand Rapids, and Miss Ethel Herrick, aged 18, a daughter of George G. Herrick, proprietor of a grocery store at Ottawa Beach, while bathing Tuesday afternoon were washed off a springboard into fourteen feet of water and drowned. The bodies have not been recovered.

His Wife an Heiress.

Stockton, Cal., Aug. 4.—Everett Ruggles has just discovered that the lady whom he recently wedded is an heiress. For some time an estate in New York state in which Mrs. Ruggles is interested had been in a legal tangle. Saturday Mrs. Ruggles received a notice to the effect that everything had been settled and that she would receive one-seventh of the estate, valued at about $750,000.

ZUELKE MAY OWN UP AND GO TO PRISON

LIKELY TO ENTER A PLEA OF GUILTY.

Farmers About Dartford Favor Him, and it is the General Relief That He Will Get a Light Sentence—Says Detective Fero Captured Him Alone in Montana.

Dartford, Wis., Aug. 4.—[Special]—Julius Zuelke, who waved examination yesterday, charged with the murder of Farmer Edward Davids, will probably plead guilty to a lesser charge in the near future, and take his chances with a jury here.

Zuelke says that the report that the sheriff of Crookston, Minn., had captured him first, is false. He says that no one ever saw him or approached him in any way until he was arrested by Detective Fero, in Montana.

The farmers hereabouts are inclined to favor Zuelke, and the opinion is general that if he is tried here, he will receive a light sentence.

CHILDREN BLOWN TO DEATH.

Three Little Ones Killed by a Bomb Near Butte, Mont.

Butte, Mont., Aug. 4.—A headstrong attempt to blow up the house of John O'Meara, superintendent of the Moonlight mine, near here, resulted in the death of three children. What appeared to be a roman candle was found near the O'Meara residence by Mamie Benson and two other little girls. While playing with it one of the children struck it with a piece of iron. It exploded and the O'Meara child was literally peppered with fragments of brass, lead and glass. The other two children were terribly cut. A hole torn in the ground showed that the bomb was charged with dynamite. Several attempts have been made on O'Meara's life heretofore.

Strikers Use Dynamite.

Hudson, Mass., Aug. 4.—An attempt was made Tuesday to blow up a section of the teneament house owned by the L. D. Apsley Rubber company, in which several of the workmen employed at the factory in the place of the striking help have been boarding. The explosion, it is thought, was caused by a dynamite bomb which had been placed under the piazza of a tenement occupied by a Mrs. Clark. The platform was demolished, portions of the underpinning were blown out and a large section of the floor of the house was torn up, causing damage amounting to several thousand dollars.

It is proposed that the statue shall occupy a niche on the Washington street side of the magnificent court house now building here.

COFFIN NAILS COME HIGHER

Tobacco Trust Raises the Price of Cigarettes.

The influence which is making it necessary to raise the price to the consumer on such cigarettes as Sweet Caporals and Old Dominion from 5 to 6 cents a box is the new price list which the American Tobacco company has just put into effect. The prices on all grades of cigarettes are raised in proportion, varying from 10 to 15 per cent. The price of Corporals, for instance, is increased from $3.88 to $4.10 a thousand. The reason for the raise, according to the members of the tobacco trust, is the new internal revenue law, which has increased the government tax.

The retail dealers say they cannot afford to sell cigarettes any longer at 5 cents a package if the new wholesale price is made permanent. There has not been much money for the retailer in the trade for many years. At the old prices he has only made $1.12 on every hundred packages he has sold, and if he continues the established retail prices he will in the future only make 90 cents a hundred packages.
Out of this small profit must come money enough to pay the annual license fee of $100, and for the smaller dealers it has been almost impossible to make both ends meet at those figures.

DRUGGISTS' ANNUAL MEET.

Preparations Being Made for Their Reception at Green Bay.

The druggists' meeting at Green Bay next week promises to be a rousing success. Most of the rooms at the hotels are taken and private houses are being called on to take the druggists in. More ladies will be in attendance than ever before, and all the traveling men in Wisconsin seem to be booked for Green Bay, as Tuesday evening is their annual entertainment given to the druggists, and this year an elaborate program has been made out.

The prizes offered by wholesale druggists and manufacturers for prizes papers and games amount to hundres of dollars. Some forty or more Milwaukee druggists will attend, most of them accompanied by ladies, and they expect to take back some of the best prizes. Secretary Heimstreet is now in Green Bay making the final arrangements for the meeting. The state board of pharmacy hold an examination at the same place on Friday, the 31st inst. All the railroads give a one and one-third rate.

CHILD GIVEN TO THE MOTHER

Grand Parents Did Not Like to Part With
The Little One.

When Judge Bennett granted Mrs.
Vernie Millard, of the town of Harmony, a divorce on Saturday, one of the stipulations of the decree was that Mrs. Millard was to have possession of their only child a boy of seven years.
This son, for some time past has been in possession of Mr. Millard's aged parents, who had become greatly attached to him and who did not want to give him up. Mrs. Millard was fully aware of these facts, so she asked the court that an officer be dispatched for the boy and Under Sheriff Cochrane was ordered to carry out the order of the court. When the officer arrived at the Millard home the aged parents made a protest, but after weighing the matter they decided it was all for the best and both kissed the boy good bye.

PRICE OF LUMBER TO GO UP.

Tariff Act Will Shut Out the Canadian Product, It Is Said.

Local lumbermen are expecting a raise in the price of lumber before many weeks. The advance will be about $1.50 per thousand. The high duty imposed by the Dingley tariff act means the shutting out of the cheap Canadian lumber, that has been the greatest thorn in the Wisconsin lumbermen's flesh. Alderman H. S. Gilkey, who has recently returned from a trip in the northern lumber district, says that in time the new tariff law is bound to raise the price of lumber in this city but that the raise may not be expected for several weeks to come.

MAKE GOOD SCORES ON RIFLE RANGE

LOCAL MILITIAMEN DO GOOD SHOOTING.

Private James Root Won Second Place
In the Regiment Yesterday—Lieutenant Bloedel in Charge of the Baby Class—Company A at the Pits—Gossip of the Camp.

Camp King, Aug. 3.—The regiment gave its first dress parade last evening.
They presented a very creditable appearance. It was followed by a short battalion drill. After the duties of the day the band gave a delightful concert that was enjoyed by a large audience. The quartermaster's department gave each company thirty-five new guns yesterday, in exchange for old ones, and in Co. A these were distributed to those making the highest scores on the range. Co. A was relieved from guard duty at 7 o'clock this morning, and has been shooting on the range today. Those who did not qualify at the 200 yard range were placed in the "baby class" and were instructed under the supervision of Lieut. Bloedel.

Chaplain Thompson, Capt. Whiting
and Fred Clemons were guests of Co.
A at dinner today.

W. J. Brooks, the company cook, is giving excellent satisfaction.

The health of the camp is very good, there being but few patients in the hospital.

The weather is very fine.

Companies C and F have been on guard today, Captain Persons being officer of the day.

The camp in general is very quiet and orderly, a marked improvement over last year. The men are more earnest and seem anxious to do their best and have others do likewise, and the work is not so hard as last year.

A New Tea.

Ceremonial Japan tea is not a low priced article, neither is it plentiful.

It is used at ceremonial festivals of the Mikado and is gathered with great care.
We have only 100 pounds of it put up in half pound packages, which will sell at 40c a package. It is double the strength of any other tea and people who have never used any of this tea should try it.

RAIN HELPS THE FARMERS.

The Recent Rain Just What They Needed.

The recent rain was a boon to the farmers. The pastures took on a new lease of life, but the harvest was slightly delayed. A good yield of spring wheat is expected and the many complaints of chinch bugs vanished with their enemy the rain drop. The entire state was subject to the rain.
Reports of crop conditions all over the state are encouraging.

HONOR PIONEER'S MEMORY

Early Settlers Adopt Resolutions on the Death of F. S. Lawrence.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Early Settlers' club on the late Frank S. Lawrence, an aged and honored member of the club, who died Aug. 2:

Frank S. Lawrence, a member of this club, having died at his residence in this city on the second day of August, 1897, it becomes our very great privilege to express our feelings of admiration and esteem for him, not only as a member of this club, but as a man and a citizen.

In the death of Mr. Lawrence this club has lost one of the most zealous and active members; one who, from its organization, has not only been greatly interested in its success and welfare, but who has been especially efficient and helpful as a member and officer.

The people of this city and county as well as this club, have lost by his death, a man of great rectitude of character and purity of life, a sincere, faithful Christian, a modest, peaceable, courteous, gentlemanly man; a man independent and honest in his convictions and opinions, frank and open in their expression, yet ever liberal and courteous toward those who differed with him.

As a citizen, Mr. Lawrence was a genuine patriot, loving his city, his state and his country with a strong devotion. Always enterprising and public spirited, he did all he could to secure the welfare, good order and prosperity, not alone of the municipality where he lived, but of the nation he loved. Be it therefore

Resolved, That we tender to the family and friends of the deceased our kindest and most heartfelt sympathy in this hour of their sorrow and affliction.

That the members of this club express their admiration and esteem for the high character and the memory of the deceased by attendance, so far as possible, at his funeral.

That a copy of these resolutions be engrossed and signed by the president of this club, and presented to the family of the deceased.

PRETTY GIRLS. THEIR FUTURE

Pretty girls are delightful to look at and very nice to know, but there are a great many people in this practical workaday world of ours who have very tender spots in their hearts for the plain girls. While they may, and probably do, adore prettiness, they long ago learned that there are many pretty girls who base all of their ideas of present success and future hopes on their good looks, and overlook the fact that there are much more substantial things in the world than beauty, even though the world puts a very high value upon that most desirable commodity. It is a misfortune to be pretty if one depends solely upon that fact for one's currency in society and one's material prosperity.

The parents of beautiful children are often envied by their associates who have no children or only those who are ordinary looking and not specially attractive. But such parents very often make the most complete shipwreck of their children's lives by their injudicious management and the very evident pride they take in the appearance of the little ones. They must not study too much, as that would make them dull and spiritless. They must not wear old or unbecoming clothes, as that would detract from their loveliness and mortify their pride. One woman, the mother of a very beautiful daughter, made the lives of her friends miserable by constant exhibitions of her child's attractiveness. She was always on the alert for some opportunity to draw comparisons between her daughter and other children, and ever, of course, to the credit and advantage of her own.

It is one of the greatest of blessings to be beautiful if one has judicious parents and friends and is carefully trained and taught the true value of beauty and the advantages to be gained by its possession if it is supplemented and aided by good sense and good breeding. Everything that adds to beauty and tends toward its permanency has a high value in all of the relations of life. Whether it be a house, a horse, a work of art or a child, beauty adds in every way to its consequence. Physical symmetry and perfection are rarely found coupled with exquisite mental balance and a good stock of sterling common sense. But once in a while this admirable combination is discovered, and truly its price is above rubies. If parents could comprehend the importance of bringing up these jewels of untold value in the right way, what treasures they might bestow upon an appreciative world!

The diamond must be cut and polished by hard work and the severest treatment before it comes to its full commercial rating, and the finest gold must be tried in the fire, but these spiritual gems are allowed to come up and develop as they will, with no special shaping or forming save that which the vanity and weak affection of too partial friends give them. And this is often given in a feeble, half-hearted way, and, to a great extent, because public opinion demands it. In many cases this weakness and folly are so pronounced that the parents seem to think that everything in the way of ignorance, ill temper and bad manners must be allowed for if their darling is to be bright, lovely in spirit and intelligent in mind as well as beautiful in face and figure!

John Griffin of Zanesville, Ohio, says: "I never lived a day for thirty years without suffering agony, until a box of Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my piles." For piles and rectal troubles, cuts, bruises, sprains, eczema and all skin troubles Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled.

A COUNTRY OF SURPRISES.

Coal, Iron, Lead and Tin in Unlimited Quantities in Africa.

While there is little doubt that with proper development of its agricultural and pastoral resources South Africa could be made practically self-supporting, the successful development of these industries depends nevertheless upon the creation of local markets through the stimulus given by mining operations, says the North American Review. With the exception of mining of gold, diamonds and coal there have been no considerable exploitations of its mineral resources. Coal fortunately exists in many parts of the country, and it has been estimated that the known coal fields represent an area of 56,000 square miles, which is equal in extent to the state of Iowa. There exist in some parts of the country large deposits of iron contiguous to the coal fields. But as yet the economic conditions have not favored the development of that industry. Lead, silver, cinnabar, tin and other metals are also found in many parts of the country, but have not been remuneratively worked. Among the mining countries of South Africa the Transvaal is facile princeps, and is in all probability destined to maintain its paramount position, though, as is well known, South Africa is "a country of surprises," and it is possible, of course, though not probable, that within its great extent other equally important districts may be discovered.

Curious Dinner at Jericho.

An American traveling in Jerusalem describes in the Hartford Courant an interesting dinner he ate recently at a hotel in Jericho:
"We sat on the porch of the hotel at Jericho," he wrote, "after a dinner at which we were served with butter from Norway, cheese from Switzerland, marmalade from London, wine from Jerusalem diluted with water from the well of Elisha, raisins from Ramoth Gilead, oranges from Jericho (in no respect inferior to those from Jaffa or the Indian River, Fla.), and almonds from the east of the Jordan, smoking Turkish tobacco, which, like the Turkish empire, is inferior to its reputation, and a cup of coffee from—the corner grocery of Jericho."

Red Eagle and His Salvation Lassie.

Red Eagle, the Indian who became well known as the leader of the Salvation army in several Kansas towns, and who lectured in this city last Saturday night, has deserted to the Volunteers, the rival organization. He fell in love with one of the Salvation army lasses, and, as the members of the organization could not or would not reconcile the marriage of one of their number to an Indian, the said parties of the first and second part took their doll rags and their affections and went into the Volunteers' yard, where the course of true love is supposed to run smooth.—Topeka State Journal.

Laws of Iron's Magnetism.

The laws showing the relation of the magnetizing forces of iron to the resultant magnetism have been fixed from experiments just completed by Prof. Reginald A. Fessenden of the Western university and A. E. Kennedy, until lately associated with Thomas A. Edison.

According to the Pittsburg Dispatch these two electricians have been trying for a year past to solve this law of iron's magnetism. The discovery will, it is claimed, greatly facilitate and cheapen the building of different electrical equipments, for by applying the formulae of the discovered law the many costly experiments of iron in a plan will not be required. This because the test of one piece of metal will suffice for a group. It is estimated that manufacturers by applying these formulae will save from 30 to 40 per cent in their work, and that the discovery will prove of great importance in other channels.

Advice to Thin Women.

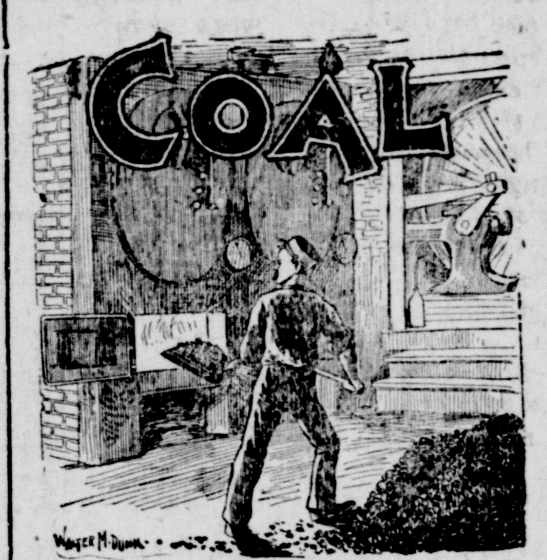

If not a lot of water, the thin woman must cultivate a taste for it. She must drink water upon rising and as often during the day and between meals as possible. Cocoa, milk, and a moderate amount of coffee are all right. A light luncheon should be eaten before retiring. Early to bed is all right, but the same rule does not apply to rising unless madame feels herself thoroughly refreshed by a good sleep. Meat should occupy a secondary place in the daily diet, but vegetables may be freely indulged in. Sweets are decided fatteners. Warm baths and sun baths will help along the work in great style.

IS IT A TRIFLE?

That Common Troub'l, Acid Dyspepsia or Sour Stomach.

Now Recognized as a Cause of Serious Disease.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called heartburn or sour stomach, is a form of indigestion resulting from fermentation of the food. The stomach being too weak to promptly digest it, the food remains until fermentation begins, filling the stomach with gas, and a bitter, sour, burning taste in the mouth is often present. This condition soon becomes chronic and being an every day occurrence is given but little attention. Because dyspepsia is not immediately fatal many people do nothing for the trouble.

Within a recent period a remedy has been discovered prepared solely to cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles. It is known as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and is now becoming rapidly used as prescribed as a radical cure for every form of dyspepsia.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been placed before the public and are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package. It is prepared by the Stuart Chemical Co., Marshall, Mich., and while it promptly and effectually restores a vigorous digestion, at the same time is perfectly harmless and will not injure the most delicate stomach, but on the contrary by giving perfect digestion strengthens the stomach, improves the appetite and makes life worth living. Send for free book on Stomach Diseases.

A BOOM IN TOBACCO IS NOW IN SIGHT

WISCONSIN WEED IS VERY VALUABLE.

Unless Unfavorable Weather Results In Damage to the Growing Crop, Business Will Be Lively, Editor Willey Says—The Dealers Made Money on Badger Goods.

Local leaf tobacco dealers are looking forward to a boom in the tobacco market. The last disturbing influence has been neutralized by the passage of the tariff bill, and the dealers can now figure on the future with certainty.

"I look for a healthy increase in trade from this on," said J. F. Willey, editor of The Leaf. "If there are no severe storms in the next few weeks, another splendid crop of tobacco will go into Rock county sheds in the pink of condition. Last year's crop was a fine one. It brought good prices, and the handlers made money. Dealers lost money on the crops of other states, but they all made money on Wisconsin goods, consequently I expect a large trade, at fair to good prices."

Dealers Like Our Goods

"As I said before, the dealers made money on Wisconsin crops last year, while they lost money on the crops of other states, and they will naturally look for money where they made it before. I expect that they will be in the Wisconsin market early next year. The crop," Mr. Willey continued, "will be bought early, and in the bundle. This will mean that the dealers will pack the goods themselves. Consequently the warehouses will all be running full force for a long season and labor will get the benefit. The growing crop is a fine one, and unless storms ruin it, it will be in great demand."

"Yes, the settling of the tariff question has had its effect. The duty on wrappers was not greatly increased but the fixing of the duty has settled all speculation as to the future. Tobacco has to be bought very close. A half cent a pound makes a big difference on a big deal, and the dealers must spin things down to a fine point."

Big Deals In Prospect.

"Several eastern buyers are in the local field, and I expect several large deals to be made by the end of the week. The eastern manufacturers want Wisconsin goods, and are willing to pay a fair price."

"The new tariff law will make the price of imported wrappers a little higher, but the consumer will not feel the increase. The law will revive all kinds of business, however. Good business in other lines of trade, means increased consumption of cigars. Consequently the dealers will sell their goods, and must buy more. The outlook in Wisconsin is therefore especially bright at this time. The only thing that can head off a prosperous season for all concerned, is unfavorable weather. Wisconsin's tobacco market will be lively next year, and the steady improvement now apparent is the forerunner of the 'good time coming.'"

Sheriff Acheson Got the "Glad Word" At the Depot.

Sheriff Acheson was out of town when Hess and Saunders got away. When he returned, Officer Brown was at the depot.

"Is everything all right?" the sheriff asked. "Hess didn't get away while I was gone?" the sheriff asked in a joking manner.

"Yes, he did though," Officer Brown replied and all joking ceased.

A DIVORCE GRANTED TO MRS. E. P. WARD

Indian Ford Woman Is Freed From Her Husband, After the Parties Had Agreed Upon a Compromise—Child Given to the Grandfather—Court News.

On the grounds of desertion, Mrs. Emma P. Ward was this morning granted a divorce from her husband, Edward L. Ward.

The interested parties reside at Indian Ford and the divorce action came to a sudden end this morning as the result of a compromise, the ground of desertion being agreed upon. When the case was called this morning several witnesses were on hand as well as the plaintiff and defendant. The defendant did not object to the divorce, but he did object to the complaint filed.

When the charge of desertion was agreed upon, he withdrew his objections and the decree was granted, the court giving their only child, a boy of fourteen years, to the defendant's father, Silas Ward. H. S. Sloan and Charles E. Pierce appeared for the plaintiff, while George Metcalf of Edgerton, and George G. Sutherland represented the defendant.

Mrs. Heine Freed.

Mrs. Othelia Heine, a bright appearing German woman, from Jefferson county, stood before Judge Bennett this morning and told her troubles, making the charge of cruel and inhuman treatment against her husband, Henry Heine. Mrs. Heine, who was represented by Attorney Charles L. Fifield, stated that she thought she would rather fight the battles of the world alone than live with her husband, and the court, after hearing the evidence granted the decree.

FUNERAL OF F. S. LAWRENCE

Impressive Services Were Held at the Family Home This Afternoon.

A more marked tribute of respect is seldom shown a departed citizen than that paid to Franklin Sheldon Lawrence, whose funeral occurred this afternoon. Services of an impressive nature were held at 2:30 o'clock from the Washington street home of the deceased, the Rev. E. H. Pence of the Presbyterian church, officiating. A noticeable feature of the gathering at the home was the large number of old settlers who were not only here in the early days, as companions of the deceased, but who have been his bosom friends ever since. The floral offerings were many and beautiful, and the song service was beautifully rendered. At the close of the services the remains were interred in Oak Hill cemetery. The active bearers were: Edward Ruger, Silas Hayner, Joseph Hume, James Shearer, A. A. Jackson and M. H. Soverhill. The honorary bearers were: A. M. Carter, Volney Atwood, Elbridge G. Fifield, Cyrus Miner, James Sutherland, David Jeffris, James Moust, Alfred Dewey, F. S. Eldred and Hamilton Richardson.

THE COTTON MILL RUNS AGAIN

Looms Are Humming at the Monterey Factory Once More.

Work has been resumed at the lower cotton mill at Monterey, and once more the hum from the loom room is a familiar sound in that locality.

The upper mill, it is said, will likely resume work before many days.

The receiving of orders indicating that a demand for cotton goods is being felt throughout the country, is the main reason given by some for the resuming of work at the lower mill, while others say that it is just to work up what cotton they now have on hand. The shutting down of the large mills of late throughout the country is causing a shortage that must sooner or later be filled.

TRAIN LOADED WITH TRAMPS

Fully One Hundred Hobos Went Through Last Night

When the regular Chicago-Eloy midnight freight on the Northwestern road pulled into the city last evening fully one hundred hobos were swarming about the cars like so many bees. In the cars, on top of the cars and between the cars, hobos of every type could be seen comfortably seated and seemingly unconcerned as to what was going on about them. Many of them had satchels and small bundles and in many cases the men were enjoying their pipes. Trainmen did not disturb them, saying that they were men out of work who were on their way to the wheat fields of the Dakotas and Minnesota.

BOY HAS HAD FITS FROM EATING BUNS

THE SAD CASE OF JOHN M. JACKMAN.

Took Part in a Contest at One of the Up River Parks Two Years Ago and Has Not Been Well Since—Sent to Chippewa Falls For Treatment.

Two years ago Johnnie M. Jackman, the fifteen year old son of Mrs. John Little, of this city, attended an up river picnic and overindulged his stomach during a bun eating contest. Since then he has been subject to epileptic fits. Today the boy is receiving treatment from skilled physicians at the State Home for the Feeble Minded at Chippewa Falls.

The case is a particularly sad and interesting one and is one that has puzzled the local medical profession.

The patient is bright for his age, and stood high in his class at school.

For some time past he has suffered with fits every time he has eaten too much, as the result of his experience at the picnic.

Two years ago the boy with several of his companions, it is said, attended one of the up river picnics where was given, among the many sports of the day, a bun eating contest. Johnnie joined in the contest and ate a dozen buns. Soon afterward he complained of pains in his stomach which gradually grew worse until medical aid was summoned. Drs. James Mills and Joe Whiting found the boy to be suffering with epileptic fits, which, it is thought, were the result of his stomach trouble. Mrs. Little had no way of properly caring for her son, so Judge J. W. Sale issued papers transferring the boy to the State Home, where he will receive treatment. County Poor Master S. B. Kenyon escorted the boy to the school and Dr. Wilmarth, who is in charge of the home, will make a special study of his case.

NO RACE MEETING THIS WEEK

The Classes Did Not Fill So Scheme Was Given Up.

The race meet which was to have been held at the local race track this week Saturday has been declared off. Lack of interest on the part of outside horsemen was the cause, and it is doubtful if another attempt to give a meet here this year will be made. Frank L. Smith said this morning that the 2:25 trot was the only class that filled, and that for some unknown reason outside horsemen did not seem to want to enter.

A FAMOUS MONEY LENDER.

Story of a Man Who Won Unequivocal Fame in California.

In the passing of Asa Fisk drops out from California life an individuality so marked that it was proverbial in the community, says the San Francisco Chronicle. Asa Fisk gave a name to methods in finance as Machiavelli gave a name to methods in politics. The common remark of those who knew him only by repute is "Cent per Cent, Cent per Cent, the money lender is dead." Zealous for his farthing Asa Fisk may have been, and in a grasping posture he was photographed in the opinion of his fellows generally, but in this lender's nature was a kindly, even a generous phase, and there are tears that he is dead. For Asa Fisk was a loving man to his own, a liberal parent and husband, and, in stealth, he made charitable gifts that might astonish those who were called upon to pay to the last dollar the debts they incurred when in stress. Indeed, in such contradiction were the aspects of this man that one cannot bring them into harmony unless he applies one lens to his business life and another to his domestic life. Asa Fisk was one man to his debtors and another man to his family. His character is to be read from his ancestry and the struggles of his early life. He was a farmer's boy in New England, born on Christmas day, 1818, at the town of Holliston, Mass., and until 14 years of age he lived and worked on his father's farm. Then he made his way to Boston, and for a wage of $3 a week worked in a grocery store. With thrift that showed higher development in his later years, Fisk bought board and lodging and clothing from his meager compensation. Seeking advancement, he sought and obtained employment with the firm of Daniel Kimball & Co., dealers in tailors' goods and supplies. His income at first was $100 a year. His industry and intelligence caused his salary to be advanced and his responsibilities to be increased. He moved steadily forward and before he was 30 years of age was a partner. Subsequently Fisk became the sole owner of the business. His fortune developing he turned to railroads and politics, building the East Boston & Suffolk railroad and serving a term in the state senate of Massachusetts. In 1863 he came to California for his health. That visit determined the location of his residence. Returning to Boston he sold out his business interests, and with a pile of ready money, amounting to about $75,000, he came, in 1869, to San Francisco to live. He started in business as a money lender, by his methods gained the notoriety that gave an unpleasant attachment to his name. He announced the rate of interest upon which he would lend money 3 per cent a month, or 3 per cent a week, according to the applicant or Fisk's judgment of him, but always compounded. The applicant might take the money or leave it, as he chose, but usually he took it, for few went to Asa Fisk's dingy office on Montgomery street except in dire need. As a creditor he was relentless. He rigorously fulfilled every engagement he made, and he expected every other man to do likewise. If a debt of $150 grew to $15,000 by the increment of compound interest he used every means known to the law to collect the last cent. Withal he loaned money to distressed applicants when none others would listen to their requests. A clerical coat on a borrower was always deemed sufficient security for a loan—of course, at the usual rate of interest—and several young lawyers might have gone hungry if Asa Fisk had not regarded their pride as collateral for an advance. Asa Fisk gained a large fortune, amounting probably to about $500,000. Most of his money was carefully invested in productive real estate and all or nearly all of this real estate he transferred to his wife by deed. In the probate court the estate of Asa Fisk, deceased, will appear of small measure.

OLD-TIME KEELHAULING.

Punishment at Sea That One Out of Three Survived.

Keelhauling was a method of naval discipline particularly in vogue with the Dutch navy, for, as Van Tromp swept the channel with a broom at his masthead, his countrymen sometimes used human sweepers under their keels, says Harper's Weekly. In large square-rigged vessels the victim was lashed to a spar and had iron weights secured to his feet; spans were secured to this spar and lines were led from it to the main yard. When all was ready the culprit was swayed up to the main yard, dropped into the sea and hauled under the ship to the other side. Here is the way Marryat describes its operation in that small cutter where Smallbones suffered and Starleyow was thought to be a dog fiend. "This ingenious process," he writes, "is nothing more nor less than scudding a poor navigator on a voyage of discovery under the bottom of the vessel, lowering him down over the bows and with ropes retaining him exactly in his position under the keelson, while he is drawn aft by a hauling line until he makes his appearance at the rudder chains, generally speaking quite out of breath—not at the rapidity of his motion but because when so long under the water he had expended all the breath in his body and was induced to take salt water in lieu. * * * In the days of keelhauling the bottoms of vessels were not coppered and, in consequence, were all studded with a species of shellfish called barnacles, which attached themselves and, as these shells were all open-mouthed and with sharp, cutting points, those who underwent this punishment (for they were made to hug the keelson of the vessel by the ropes at each side fastened to their arms) were cut and scored all over the body, as if with so many lancets, generally coming up bleeding in every part. But this was considered rather advantageous than otherwise, as the loss of blood restored the patient if he was not quite drowned and the consequence was that one out of three, it is said, have been known to recover after their submarine excursion." No words add to this weird description of a very old and hearty sea way of murdering. All the officers of junior and middle rank and all the men, whether volunteered, shanghaied or pressed, were underpaid and robbed.

One of the Pleasures Offered Us by Nature

It is pleasant to idle away an occasional hour during the spring or summer, enjoying the fresh, fragrant-laden air and the green sward, with its dots or splashes of color, and drinking in the mingled chorus of songs and calls and the many other sounds that pervade the place, says Lippincott's. It is pleasant to allow these variable agreeable sensations to form a harmonious background to dreamy reverie.

But when, instead of permitting them to remain a mere mass—a collective noun, as it were—one separates each individual from its fellow, learns to know the color which each flower lends to the scene, the note which each bird contributes to the chorus—then is felt the truest, deepest and most intense enjoyment of the bountiful feast which nature offers to the senses. Each flower, each bird, is a friend; and about each are clustered the many pleasant associations that friendship brings.

That clear, ringing melody from the copse is not merely a pretty song; it is the rich voice of our old friend the Carolina wren, whose cheery note, accompanied by the pure, cool breeze of early morning, has so often brought matin greetings through the open window. The beautiful song of two clear, rather plaintive notes is no longer an undistinguished part of a general chorus in the chickadee's love song, which has so many times broken the long silence of winter and told us of the coming spring, even amid snow covered fields and icicle pointed trees.

The memory is stored with reminiscences of former scenes and surroundings; with details of the habits and appearance of the singers; with incidents of their courtship, their rivalries, their house building, their parental cares and anxieties; with their social travels in other lands. And these are all stirred to life to a greater or less degree by the sound of their voices.

Stopping a Horse with a Sermon.

The late Archbishop Taft of Canterbury once made an effective use of a sermon. Driving down Holloway hill, he was confronted by a runaway horse with a heavy dray making straight for his carriage. He threw a sermon in its face.

The horse was so bewildered by the fluttering leaves that it swerved and paused. The driver regained control, the sermon was picked up and the divine proceeded on his way.

"I don't know," he said to his companion, the present archbishop of York, "whether my sermon did any good to the congregation, but it was of considerable service to myself—Strand Magazine.

A Wise Dog.
Mrs. Mater—"I wonder what makes that dog so afraid of me? He always acts as if he thought I was going to half kill him." Little Daughter—"I guess he's seen you 'pankin' me."—Foster.

An English physician claims that regular daily traveling in railway cars has a hygienic value, and especially beneficial in cases of gout.

A Vulgar Calculation.

"I am convinced," said the broad-minded man, "that a United States senator's salary is, comparatively speaking, a beggarly pittance." "Oh, I can't know," replied Senator Sorghum. "It depends on how he handles it. A year's salary isn't much if he attempts to live on it. But it makes a very respectable margin in a sugar deal."—Washington Star.

Willing to Accept It.

A tract distributor the other day, in a new settlement out west, popped his head into an Irishman's cabin and asked him "if he would accept a tract from the holy land?" "Yes, bedad," cried Pat. "I'll take a houl section, if ye'll pay me passage right through."—Household Words.

A Remarkable Cure of Chronic Diarrhoea.

In 1862, when I served my country as a private in Company A, 16th Pennsylvania Volunteers, I contracted chronic diarrhoea. It has given me a great deal of trouble ever since. I have tried a dozen different medicines and several prominent doctors without any permanent relief. Not long ago a friend sent me a sample bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after that I bought and took a cent bottle; and now I can say that I am entirely cured. I cannot be thankful enough to you for this great Remedy, and recommend it to all suffering veterans. If in doubt write me. Yours gratefully, HENRY STEINBERGER, Allentown, Pa. Sold at C. D. A Queen's Visit.

To be old and poor and bedridden is generally to be debarred from the greater privileges of life, but there was one old man in Scotland who found his disadvantages had procured him a privilege that the strong and more active members of his family were seeking in vain. It was on an occasion when Queen Victoria was at Balmoral, and, as she often did, she went one day, unaccompanied, to visit the cottages. In one of these she found an old man, bedridden and quite alone, and she sat down to talk to him. "And how is it you are alone?" she asked. "Have you no one to keep you company?"

"No," replied the old man, innocently, "my folks be all away seeing the queen; they thought they might get a glimpse of her."

His visitor made no reply, but she sat with the old man, pleasantly filling the gap made by the absence of "his folks," and then found time to read to him from the Bible she herself treasured. On leaving she gave a further proof of her sympathy in the shape of a five-pound note, accompanying it with the words: "When your people come back, tell them that while they have been to see the queen, the queen has been to see you."

Too Mathematical a Mind.

An English paper says that there was once in one of the great universities a mathematical tutor who boasted that he neither knew nor cared to know anything about poetry. It was all, he said, "a lot of unpractical rot." He had a friend, a brother-tutor in literature, who was very anxious to convert him to a liking for poetry. This friend thought he would begin with a poem which everybody must like, and gave the mathematician Tenyson's "Charge of the Light Brigade" to read.

The mathematician took it up and read thus: Half a league, half a league, half a league onward.

Then he banged the book down on the table.

"Bah!" he snorted. "If the fool meant a league and a half, why on earth didn't he say so?" The man of letters gave up the attempt to convert his friend to a liking for poetry.

Unintentional Pity.

From the Weekly Telegraph: At an evening party recently the hostess had bustled out of the room to arrange some details of supper, or something. During her absence a young man sang a sentimental ballad--to the intense agony of the company. The hostess returned just after he had finished. As he had to leave early he approached to make his farewell. "Good-night," said the hostess, with the usual excess of amiability. "Good-night. I'm so sorry you can't sing." The young man crimsoned and fled.
